Enrolled agents (EAs) are America's Tax Experts!

EAs are the only federally licensed tax practitioners who specialize in taxation and also have unlimited rights to represent taxpayers before the IRS.

They are highly recognized by the industry and consumers based on their high level of expertise and knowledge of tax law and regulations.

Like attorneys and certified public accountants, enrolled agents are unrestricted in:

- Which taxpayers they can represent
- What types of tax matters they can handle and which IRS offices they can practice before
- The only tax professional licensed to practice and represent clients in all 50 states

EA EXAM REVIEW PROGRAM:

UCLA Extension's EA Exam Review program presents a comprehensive review to prepare those who plan to sit for the IRS Special Enrollment Examination (SEE). The program fully covers each section of the examination and includes final review sessions that provide problems from prior exams.

PROGRAM INSTRUCTORS:

The review courses are taught by IRS attorneys and CPAs who have extensive experience in tax preparation and the Internal Revenue Service.

John T. Schooler, JD, attorney; Appeals Officer, Internal Revenue Service, Retired

Flora M. Basa, BS, CPA, Revenue Agent, Internal Revenue Service

Charlotte Edginton, MA, Appeals Officer, Internal Revenue Service

Gregory Habib, CPA, MST, IRS International Examiner - Retired

PROGRAM STUDY MATERIALS:

Lectures are supplemented with study materials bought separately. The text, Gleim EA Review System, can be purchased at a discounted price ($567 for full package) after enrollment into the review program. Students are provided access to Gleim's online platform and online instructor support throughout the duration of the course.
