

Business, Management & Legal Programs

33rd Annual

Tax Controversy Institute

Tuesday, October 24, 2017 at the Beverly Hills Hotel

uclaextension.edu/taxcon

Attend this preeminent conference exclusively dedicated to tax controversy and tax litigation

This 1-day conference brings together leading tax practitioners from the federal government, judiciary, and private practice to discuss and debate the pro-cedures, policies, and strategies that are involved in resolving difficult tax controversy issues.

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- Participate in high-quality panel discussions
- Network with leading tax professionals and IRS representatives
- Convenient, day-long format
- Available for MCLE, CPE, and legal specialist educational credit in taxation law.

CALCPA WEBCAST

In partnership with CalCPA, this conference is available as a webcast.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Tax Attorneys
- Accountants, CPA's, & Enrolled Agents
- Tax and Corporate Professionals
- Accounting/Tax, & Law Students

SCHEDULE AND LOCATION

Tuesday, October 24

8:00am-5pm*

Reg# 354998

The Beverly Hills Hotel
9641 Sunset Boulevard

Registration and continental breakfast begin at 7:30am*

Conference fee: $525

All fees include continental breakfast, awards luncheon, evening reception, and valet parking

UCLA Extension students and IRS employee fee: $195

Discounts Available

Special discounts are available for CalCPA, NAEA and FPA members. Employer group discounts are also available.

For more information or to enroll at the special discounted pricing contact:

Sam Gomez

(310) 825-4938

sgomez@uclaextension.edu